Seminar series

REGISTER BY MARCH 30 FOR EARLY BIRD RATES AS LOW AS $179!

Pre-Seminar Workshops A&B | Thursday May 3 | 8:30am-12:30pm |

A. Funding Sources: How to Approach Them Effectively | 8:30-10:30am |

John Binsted, formerly of the Vancouver Foundation will present ways to identify and approach potential funding sources; gain an insight into the thinking and inner workings of foundations and other institutional funders and discover the keys that are essential to effective grant writing.

B. Financial Accountability: Volunteer Board Members—What You Need to Know | 10:30-12:30pm |

As a board member, you have a fiduciary responsibility to manage the assets of your organization. You are personally accountable for the financial oversight that guides the viability of the organization that you govern even if you are not the treasurer. Terry Bolton, Salt Spring Island Foundation Treasurer and chair of the Investment Committee will address board responsibilities

Keynote address | Thursday May 3 | 1:30-2:30pm |
Conservation For What? with Mike Lewis

Mike Lewis is well known in Canada and internationally as a practitioner, author, educator, and leader in the field of CED and the social economy. An innovator, activist and thinker with a penchant for linking practice with policy and the micro and macro, Mike's leadership in CCCR and elsewhere continues to help us connect the dots and stay ahead of the curve.

Keynote Address | Friday May 4 | 1:15-2pm |
Lessons Learned: Cowichan Basin Water Management Plan with Rodger Hunter

Rodger Hunter has worked as a management consultant with Vis-à-vis Management Resources Inc. since 2005. His areas of specialty include: strategic and business planning, business/program reviews, governance, project management and sustainability. Rodger worked in a variety of positions with the Provincial government including: manager of the Habitat Conservation Fund, Executive Director of Environmental Protection and as an Assistant Deputy Minister. In July 2009 he was requested to work with the partners responsible for the development of the Cowichan Basin Water Management Plan. Rodger will offer insights and lessons learned based on his involvement with the Plan and the Cowichan Watershed Board.

field trips

Keating Farm | Wednesday May 2 | 10am-4pm |

On June 29, 2005, TLC purchased Keating Farm Estate in the Koksilah area of the Cowichan Valley, near Duncan on Vancouver Island. This 13 ha farm property contains a number of heritage structures, a heritage orchard, bee hives, chickens, managed fields and a small wetland. Adjacent is the old CNR right-of-way which connects to the Trans-Canada Trail and has great potential as a recreational corridor. Includes lunch, Cherry Point Estate Wines and cheese factory tours.

Canoe Trip | Thursday May 3 | 10am-1pm |

Canoe trip to the Genoa Bay estuary with gourmet lunch! Cowichan Bay is spectacular—it is even more breathtaking on the water canoeing to the other side and enjoying a refreshing lunch before heading back for the start of Seminar 2012! Canoe fee, lunch and great weather included!
